 - HH. “Suspension” means an involuntary leave of absence without pay for disciplinary reasons for a period not to exceed 30 calendar days.
 - II. “Transfer” means the movement of an employee from one position to another in the same pay range without a break in employment.
 - JJ. “Without prejudice” means a declaration that no rights or privileges of the employee concerned are to be considered as thereby waived or lost except in so far as may be expressly conceded or decided.
 - KK. “Writing or written” means in the written form and/or an alternative format, where deemed appropriate, and when requested.
- [10.12.1.7 NMAC - N, 7/1/2015]

10.12.1.8 APPROVAL AUTHORITY:

- A. Pursuant to the provision of Section 31-15-7 NMSA 1978 the chief public defender shall supervise all administrative and technical personnel activities of the department. The chief public defender may designate duties as needed.
 - (1) The human resource director, pursuant to direction from the chief, will establish a quality assurance review program. The chief will review the quality assurance review program.
 - (2) The human resource director shall ensure that all programs are reviewed, as outlined in the quality assurance review program, which will enable the chief to supervise all administrative and technical personnel activities of the state and ensure compliance with the rules. The human resource director shall submit the findings to the chief.

10.12.1.9 INTERPRETATIONS: The chief shall establish a procedure for the issuance of interpretations of these rules.

[10.12.1.9 NMAC - N, 7/1/2015]

10.12.1.10 METHOD OF SERVING NOTICE: Any notice required of the department by these rules, shall be delivered by a method that provides proof of service or attempted service.

[10.12.1.10 NMAC - N, 7/1/2015]

10.12.1.11 COMPUTATION OF TIME:

A. In computing any period of time prescribed or allowed by these rules, the day from which period of time begins to run shall not be included. The last calendar day of the time period shall be included in the computation unless it is a Saturday, Sunday or a day on which a legal holiday is observed. In such a case, the period of time runs to the close of business on the next regular workday. If the period is less than 11 days, a Saturday, Sunday or legal holiday is excluded from the computation.

B. Whenever an employee is permitted or required by these rules to respond or do some other act within a prescribed period after service of a notice or paper upon the employee and the notice or paper is served by mail or courier service, 3 calendar days shall be added to the prescribed period.

10.12.1.12 EMPLOYMENT RECORDS:

A. The office shall maintain a record of each employee's employment history in accordance with operational necessity and applicable state and federal law requirements. Employees shall have access to their own file. Employment-related confidential records shall be available for inspection by prospective employers when the employee has provided a signed release. No materials shall be placed in an employee's employment history without providing the employee with a copy. Employees may submit a written rebuttal to any material placed in their employment history. The department shall transfer the complete record of an employee's employment history upon inter-agency transfer.

B. Employment records, except confidential records, are subject to inspection by the general public. Confidential records may be inspected with the written permission of the employee or pursuant to a lawful court order.

C. For the purpose of inspection of public records under Section 14-2-1 NMSA 1978 et seq., the following material shall be regarded as confidential and exempted from public inspection: records and documentation pertaining to physical or mental illness, injury or examinations, sick leave and medical treatment of persons; records and documentation maintained for purposes of the Americans with Disabilities Act [42 U.S.C. Section 12101 et seq.]; letters of reference concerning employment, licensing, or permits; records and documentation containing matters of opinion; documents concerning infractions and disciplinary actions; performance appraisals; opinions as to whether a person should be re-employed; college transcripts; military discharge; information on the race, color, religion, sex, national origin, political affiliation, age, and disability of employees; home address and personal telephone number unless related to public business; social security number; laboratory reports or test results generated according to the provisions of 10.12.8 NMAC; and as otherwise provided by state or federal law.

10.12.1.13 SETTLEMENT AGREEMENTS: Any settlement agreement reached by the department and an employee to resolve a matter in dispute between them, that incorporates provisions covered by these rules, must conform to the provisions of these rules and have the prior approval of the chief. The chief may approve a settlement agreement, which does not conform to the provisions of these rules if, in the judgment of the chief, the settlement is in the best interest of the public defender department.

[10.12.1.13 NMAC - N, 7/1/2015]

10.12.1.14 HUMAN RESOURCE POLICIES: The department shall make human resource policies available to employees and insure that policies conform to requirements of law.

[10.12.1.14 NMAC - N, 7/1/2015]

10.12.1.15 TRAINING AND DEVELOPMENT: The human resource director in conjunction with the training director shall establish, pursuant to direction from the chief, maintain a training and development work plan. The chief will review the training and development work plan on an annual basis.
[10.12.1.15 NMAC - N, 7/1/2015]

10.12.1.16 SEVERABILITY: A determination by a court of competent jurisdiction that any provision of these rules is unconstitutional or invalid shall not adversely affect the constitutionality, validity or enforceability of the remaining provisions.
